Volume 218 – May 2019

Well, how many winters will we have this year? As we head into some wintry weather (again!), all we can do is dream about a late season of great fishing, lots of water out there!

Our May fishout has been changed. Due to expected “inclement” weather, we will be cancelling our annual May Family Campout fishing trip to Frenchmans. Instead, we will be having a one day fishout for anyone interested. We will be meeting at Indian Creek Reservoir on Saturday, May 18th. No barbeque planned, so bring your lunch!

The ladies fly fishing clinic, “Get Hooked on Fishing”, on Saturday, April 27th at Fuji Park and Bailey’s Pond was a great success. We may have some new members joining and sharing our passion for fly fishing.

Looking for something to do outdoors with the family? Checkout the flyer later in this newsletter for the Nevada Outdoor Experience/Youth Outdoor Expo, right here in Carson City on June 29, 2019.

April Fishout Report Indian Creek Reservoir

We had about 6 members show up for our April fishout at Indian Creek Reservoir. The fishing was slow. But the barbeque and potluck were great!

Once again, Ken did an outstanding job, this time with pulled pork sandwiches, and side dishes were great as well. Ed was the big winner with three fish.

GET HOOKED ON FLY FISHING

“The cream of the crop instructors from the Carson Fly Fishing Club, High Sierra Flycasters, Truckee River Fly Fishing Club, as well as some of our local guides provided an excellent introduction to fly fishing for the ladies of the Get Hooked on Fly Fishing event. Thanks to each club and NDOW. We especially appreciate the time of Glenn Lemon, Jose Luna, and Whitney Inmon.”
